

'Wanted' Ping posters 'shame campaign'

By Christine D. Andrus and Tina Landa

WITH A NEW SCENARIO, SCENARIOS TO GO, and a new cast of characters, the "Wanted" posters are up again in Manila. Known for its cartoonish posters, Mayor Antonio Trillanes is currently running a campaign to "shame" his opponents.

"The kind of posters we put in the minds of the people that are not acceptable,"

Nene's daughter a casualty of Senate clash over C-5

BY JAMES HANCOCK, STAFF WRITER
 Honolulu, Hawaii (Herald) — Nene's daughter, a 10-year-old girl, was a casualty of the Senate clash over the C-5 bill.

The girl, who is named Nene, was in the hospital for several days after being hit by a car while walking to school. The car was driven by a man who was also in the hospital. The man was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

The girl's mother, Nene, was also in the hospital. She was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol. The girl's mother was also charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

Before printing of this journal covered the September 16, 1970 date was omitted by mistake! The entire July-August issue of the published journal (1970) is being reprinted. Additional information is being printed separately because it is 128 pages of your interest. Many changes, all without charge, are being made. This includes the removal of the old cover design. This journal is a new one, right from the ground up. It will be better than ever before. I am sorry you have been waiting so long. I hope to see you at the next issue.

With great courtesy, I have accepted the invitation to visit the University of Chicago Press, and I am looking forward to the opportunity to meet with you and the other members of the Press. I am also looking forward to the opportunity to meet with you and the other members of the Press. I am also looking forward to the opportunity to meet with you and the other members of the Press.

Expenditure on research and development in the pharmaceutical industry has increased steadily since 1980, and is expected to continue to rise in the future. This is due to a number of factors, including the need to develop new drugs to treat chronic diseases, the increasing cost of research and development, and the need to develop new drugs to treat rare diseases.

TOKENS OF LOVE AND LUCK FROM SM HOMEWORLD

This year's Chinese New Year festivities are unique because these fall on Valentine's Day, making it a celebration of love and luck. Here are some auspicious accents from SM HomeWorld that not only symbolize good fortune, but make good decor as well.

TIGER THINGS

According to Chinese mythology, the tiger is the guardian of the home. It is believed to ward off evil spirits and bring good fortune to the household. The tiger is also a symbol of strength and courage.
